

FOR SALE: 2007 Volkswagen Jetta GLI 2.0T

February 2, 2016

(SOLD) This Special VW Jetta GLI is in Gorgeous Condition and For Sale from Blauparts

Description:

Gorgeous condition, very low miles, clean title, 100% unmodified Volkswagen Jetta GLI. Exceptionally clean with full power options, optional dual zone climate control, heated anthracite leather seats, leather wrapped sport multifunction steering wheel, handbrake, and shift knob, paddle shift, glass power moon roof, genuine VW rubber floor mats, and factory 18" alloy wheels.

EPA mpg estimates of 22 city, and 29 highway, however we've reported highway mileage ranging into the upper 30s. With only 1 owner besides us, the interior and exterior are in excellent condition. There are little signs of wear on the exterior body and absolutely no door dings. The interior is like new, with no interior scratches, including every door handle, even the driver side! The leather seats also show little to no wear. This car has also had all scheduled maintenance performed and shouldn't need any service for many miles to come. Hurry, this is your opportunity to own a mint condition, low mileage Jetta GLI.

Scheduled maintenance performed as following:

- Brand new timing belt service with only parts from Official O.E. suppliers including:
 - - - Timing belt
 - - - Timing belt tensioners
 - - - Water pump
 - - - Thermostat
 - - - Serpentine Belt
- Coolant flush
- Full 40K DSG transmission fluid and filter service
- New cabin air filter
- New oil filter
- Oil changed with RAVENOL VMO 5W-40 (VW 505 01 Approved Oil)
- Freshly charged A/C

This is a choice automobile with many features and luxuries for not a lot of money. It has received a full inspection, and all maintenance service is up to date. This should serve as an excellent car with no major service required for at least 30,000 miles.
